Name:
Date:
Class / Block:

"Revolution? What Revolution?" Questionnaire

After reading the article, "Revolution? What Revolution? Russia Asks 100 Years Later," respond to the following questions. Use complete sentences and evidence from the article. If you don't the assignment will be counted as incomplete.

1. Why does the Kremlin plan to "sit out the centenary of the Russian Revolution?" What's the official reason? What's the "more likely explanation," according to the article? Use direct evidence or quotes.

why doesn't the Russian Re	volution fit neatly into that narrative?
you agree with that characte as the United States, also liv	Ve live in historical schizophrenia," mean? Do erization of Russia? Do other countries, such re in "historical schizophrenia?" Give examples.	