Triangle Fire Letter to the Editor

For this assignment you will be writing a letter to the editor of the New York Times from two different perspectives.

The first letter, must be written from the perspective of someone who witnessed the events at the Triangle Shirtwaist Company. You will be demanding change for the industrial workers of America. What did you see that saw you angry? What changes do you think need to take place? Who should be held responsible for this? Be specific!

The second letter must written from the perspective of a company owner. Why do you think things need to stay the same? What would happen if workers were treated better? How would this affect you as a business owner?
